PRESIDENT, 2 AIDES WORK ON TWO MESSAGES

President Eisenhower wound up 1958 today by working on a new draft of his State of the Union message—and also on a portrait of Thomas Jefferson.

Eisenhower conferred during the morning with his chief aide Wilton B. Persons and speechwriter Malcolm Moos, who came by helicopter from Washington to the President's country home.

He posed for pictures during the morning with Persons and Moos on the glass-enclosed sunporch of his house, making notes on the margin of a speech draft as he talked with the two aides.

A reporter who accompanied the photographers said that at one end of the sunporch there was an easel with a partly completed oil portrait of Jefferson—the President's latest painting project.

Eisenhower has a high regard for Jefferson.

Masonic Dinner At York Springs

Charles H. Nitsch, Philadelphia, past grand master of the Masons of Pennsylvania, was the speaker Tuesday evening at the annual St. John's Day banquet of the Hebron lodge No. 465 of the F. and A. M. of New Oxford in the cafeteria of the new elementary school at York Springs. More than 150 attended.

J. Faber Wildasin of Abbotstown was the toastmaster and the speaker was introduced by Paul G. Pensinger, Gettysburg, district deputy grand master.

Other newly-elected and installed officers of Hebron lodge were introduced by the Rev. Archie Rohrbaugh, York, formerly of New Oxford, who is the new worshipful master of the New Oxford lodge.

Mr. Nitsch presented a past master's jewel to the retiring master of Hebron lodge, Gilbert H. Zeigler. Among special guests was Willis R. Michael, York, a steward of the grand lodge of the Masons.

SCHOOLS HAVE FEW HAZARDS, CHECK SHOWS

A fire safety inspection of the five schools in Gettysburg was made Tuesday by Donald Jacobs, Gettysburg fire marshal, and representatives of the fire department, Chiefs Donald Staub, Frank Linn and Robert Hartman and Glenn Weishaar. Jacobs said that most buildings were found "in favorable condition."

Several instances were noted where it was the practice to accumulate inflammable materials and recommendations were made to custodians to correct the practices. The most serious of these was noted in one school, Jacobs said, where a janitor used a room for sleeping and had accumulated some personal items there which were considered to present an unnecessary hazard.

Jacobs said that the removal of the material was ordered and that he understands that the order is being complied with. A recheck will be made, he said.

President, Aides Work On Messages

President Eisenhower is shown on his front porch at his nearby farm with two White House aides, working on his State of the Union and budget messages which he will present to Congress next month. At the left is Malcolm Moos, a speechwriter, and at the right is Wilton B. Persons, the President's chief aide. The two men made the trip here by helicopter this morning. (AP Photo)

Times To Publish At Noon Thursday

Most Gettysburg and Adams County business places will be closed on Thursday in observance of New Year's Day but the Gettysburg Times will be published as usual, going to press at noon.

Banks, court house offices and stores will observe the holiday and the post office will be on holiday schedule. No rural or city deliveries will be made and there will not be any window service although the lobby of the federal building will be open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. A skeleton crew will dispatch mails.

Watch night services are scheduled for tonight in a number of churches while clubs and lodges will stage New Year's Eve parties and many others will be held in private homes.

Catholics throughout the county will observe the Feast of the Circumcision Thursday as a "holy day of obligation" on which they are required to attend mass. Special hours have been set for the masses in all Catholic churches with the masses at St. Francis Xavier here listed for 6:15, 8, 9:15 and 10:30 a.m.

CRIST TO TAKE HARBOLD CASE TO HARRISBURG

The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, this morning said he will ask the state attorney general to decide who should hold the inquest into the death of Ervin Levi Harbold, York Springs R. I., who was fatally injured December 18, in a traffic collision six miles north of Cross Keys on the York Springs Rd. and then died Saturday at the Hanover Hospital.

Dr. Crist said he will seek the state's opinion after he learned that Dr. Thomas M. Hart, York County coroner, said he will take no action in connection with the fatality, holding that since the accident occurred in Adams County it is Dr. Crist's affair.

The Adams County coroner said the law of the state seems to provide that the coroner in the county where the death occurred should hold the inquest. One section of Public Law 323 provides that the coroner shall investigate "deaths which appear to have happened within the county regardless of where the causes thereof may have occurred, for the purpose of determining whether or not an inquest thereof should be had," and the next section of the law provides that "if, upon investigation by the coroner he shall not be satisfied thereby that the death resulted from natural causes, or by suicide, he shall proceed to conduct an inquest upon a view of the body as provided by law."

O. T. CULLISON WINS FIRST IN XMAS CONTEST

The Christmas display of Oscar T. Cullison, 37 Breckenridge St., was awarded first prize in the WGET outdoor Xmas decorations contest. The displays were judged Tuesday evening.

Cullison's home was outlined with Christmas lights with a large star atop the house, a large scene depicting the nativity on the porch, candles in the windows and a church scene with a choir.

Second prize went to the home of William Swisher, 106 E. Middle St., with floodlighting, a Christmas tree in a window, a decorated doorway and a Santa sleigh across the street.

Third award went to the home of the Rev. Laverne Rohrbaugh, Biglerville, where lights outlined the house and a tree and cross were featured.

Fourth prize was awarded the home of Joseph Hoffman, W. Middle St. where a nativity scene was shown.

At Board's Request

The inspection of all schools was made in accordance with a school board request and one from Rev. Fr. Anthony Kane, that the buildings be inspected quarterly. Jacobs said that he believes that inspections had been made occasionally before but that this request puts the program on a scheduled basis.

Several recommendations will be made, he said, after he has had an opportunity to confer with school officials regarding several "minor" conditions which he feels might well be improved.

Other public buildings and places where persons congregate will be subject to inspection also, as time permits, the fire marshal said. Some of these have been made, in accordance with requests.

The County Home is the next on Jacobs' list. In connection with the inspections, all fire extinguishers were checked and recharged. An inspection was made recently of the Warner Hospital, Jacobs said.

LOCAL CLUBS PLAN PARTIES EVE OF 1959

A rousing welcome will be given 1959 at the several New Year's parties and dances held by the local social and fraternal organizations this evening. Most of these will follow the traditional pattern and will be attended by their members and, in some cases, a few invited guests.

The Mason-Dixon Cotillion will hold its annual New Year dance in the Hotel Gettysburg, for members only. Music will be furnished by the Royce Band, of York. Snowmen will furnish the theme for the decorations. A cocktail hour will precede the dance from 9 to 9:30 p.m.

The Singing Sergeant from Fort Ritchie will entertain at the VFW Post home at a party and dance for members and their guests. The Four Guys will furnish the music for dancing. Festivities will get underway at 10 p.m. and WGET will broadcast from the party from 11:30 until midnight.

GEN. U.S. GRANT MAY ADDRESS MEETING HERE

The Gettysburg Civil War Round Table, meeting Tuesday evening at the VFW home, E. Middle St., voted to hold a public meeting January 23 at which officials of the Civil War Centennial Commission will outline plans for the forthcoming anniversary; voted $25 toward a fund for preservation of Old Dorm at the Gettysburg Theological Seminary, and decided to conduct, in cooperation with WGET, a number of radio programs on the Civil War Centennial starting in 1959.

A committee comprising D. Walker Woods, George Olinger and Dr. Harry Pfanz was appointed to "ascertain the status of the drive to save Old Dorm." The building was used during the Civil War by the troops of both sides. The Round Table members also agreed to "talk up" the need to preserve the Battlefield from further "encroachments."

Gen. Grant May Speak

John K. Weitzel, Centennial chairman for the Round Table, reported on plans for the January 23 meeting. He said that General U.S. Grant, chairman of the Civil War Centennial Commission, or some other member of the commission will speak.

The following committee was appointed to arrange for the WGET broadcasts: Dr. Robert L. Bloom, Dr. Harry Pfanz, Dr. Robert Rortenbaugh, George Olinger, Edwin Longenecker, John K. Weitzel, Richard Folkenroth, Samuel G. Sollenberger, Dr. Frederick Tilberg, David Woods, D. Walker Woods and Chester S. Shriver.

A letter written by an officer of a New Jersey company from Gettysburg July 5, 1863 describing the scene of battle was read. The letter was forwarded by Dan Skelly, state editor of the Elizabeth, N. J., Journal.

G. Henry Roth presided at the meeting and spoke on the "Independent Blues."

Alaska Will Be Admitted To Union Saturday Noon

President Eisenhower will go to Washington Saturday morning, by helicopter if weather permits, to preside at an impressive ceremony formally admitting Alaska as the 49th state into the Union. Arizona was the 48th state to be admitted in 1912.

At the White House, very likely in the cabinet room, the President will sign the proclamation proclaiming Alaska as the 49th state and issue an executive order designating the new flag to comprise 49 stars.

The President has invited a small group of officials to attend the ceremony. They are: Vice President Richard Nixon; Congressman Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House of Representatives; Fred Seaton, secretary of the interior; Wain Hendrickson, acting governor of Alaska; Robert B. Atwood, chairman of the Alaska Statehood Commission; Mike A. Stepanovich, the last person to be appointed governor of Alaska as a territory; the senators-elect, Ernest Gruening, a former governor, and E. L. Bartlett; congressman-elect, Ralph J. Rivers; and governor-elect, William A. Egan.

The invitations to the ceremony were sent to the men by telegram from Gettysburg Tuesday.

President Eisenhower will also display the new flag for the first time. Its design will be revealed at noon Saturday. Its official use will become effective July 4, 1959.

Immediately after the ceremony the President will return to his farm here.

DECEMBER IS COLDEST HERE IN 41 YEARS

Gettysburg's coldest December since 1917 and the third coldest December on record here in the last 55 years also was one of the driest Decembers in local weather annals.

The month that ends today was 2.5 inches short on rainfall. There was no measurable snow and the rainfall totaled only 0.64 inch.

Many Decembers have been more severe cold but it was the length of the cold "spell" this month that made the difference and set the 41-year record.

15 Days Of Freezing

There were only three December days on which freezing temperatures were not recorded here and on 15 days it was below freezing all day. The month's low was 9 above zero and reached three days. The balmy weather that came late in the month helped raise average temperatures and set 56 degrees at the high reading for the month.

The coldest December on record here was in 1917 when the low was 9 below zero and there were 18 inches of snow. The average temperature that month was 24.2 degrees. This month's average was 27.61 degrees, which is 5.19 degrees below normal December weather for Gettysburg. December of 1910 was the second coldest here.

The average daily high here for this month was only 35.42 degrees and the average daily low reading was 19.81 degrees. In December of last year the average was four degrees above normal.

Four Rainy Days

This month saw only four snow flurries and there were only four days on which measurable amounts of rain fell. It was the driest December since 1955 when an all-time record was set, making the month ended today the second driest December in local weather annals.

December's cold, dry weather followed the warmest November in 10 years and there was a quarter-inch surplus of rain last month, too.

December's short rainfall brings the 1958 total here to 43.27 inches, a surplus of 2.28 inches above normal. December was the driest month of the year and cut deeply into accumulated surpluses in earlier months.

SELL FARM

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brinton, Biglerville R. 1, have sold their 40-acre farm property in Butler Twp. along the Stone Jug Rd. to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ronda, Silver Spring, Md. Immediate possession was given. The sale was made through C. A. Heiges and Son.

Crises Straightening Out

Dr. Crist said he is asking an opinion because: "There has grown up a custom among some counties of having the inquest held in the county where the injuries were received, and looking at it without regard to law, it would seem that that is the way it should be. But the law apparently says exactly the opposite, and I think the matter should be straightened out, for several reasons. One of the reasons is financial. An inquest costs money for witnesses, juries, etc."

"Assuming that as coroner of Adams County I should hold an inquest in this case without a ruling from the state, and the county and its auditors would say that I have no right under the law to hold an inquest, who then would pay the costs of the inquest? As the law appears to read, I would be operating illegally to hold the inquest."

MANY GIVEN FOOD, GIFTS

Christmas baskets and other items were directed to 114 families, representing more than 600 persons, throughout Adams County by the Holiday Bureau which was operated this year by the Woman's Club of Gettysburg. Mrs. Ramsay Jones Jr., in charge of the bureau, reported today.

"The response was really good and we are grateful to everyone," she said. The bureau worked through Christmas Eve getting the last of the needy cases taken care of. What the bureau did was to compile a list of cases and to supply information to organizations and individuals regarding needs and delivery directions. Serving thus as a clearing house, it insured everyone being taken care of and minimized the possibility of duplication.

Most of the gifts were of food but many toys and gifts for children were provided. Some giving was in the form of clothing gift certificates. The giving was done by service clubs, Sunday School classes, other organizations and by individuals. "The individual help was wonderful," Mrs. Jones said. Although organizational help reached many of the cases, the personal giving made it possible for the bureau to fill the gaps.

ASKS RELEASE AS DEFENDANT

The additional defendant in two of the actions in trespass brought as a result of a fatal accident on Christmas Day, 1957, near Littlestown, is seeking to be released from the actions because of payments by an insurance company, according to papers filed with the county prothonotary.

Margaret R. Bailey, Hagersstown, as administratrix of the estate of her brother-in-law, John M. Spangler, one of the three persons fatally injured in the crash, is listed as additional defendant in an action in trespass brought by Lucy G. Eller, Littlestown R. 1, widow of Lloyd E. Eller, who also was fatally injured in the accident, against Robert W. Yingling, Littlestown R. D., and Mrs. Bailey as administratrix of the estate of John Spangler.

Mrs. Bailey as administratrix of the estate of John Spangler is additional defendant in the suit brought by herself as administratrix of the estate of Ruth G. Spangler, wife of John M. Spangler, who also was fatally injured in the crash, against Yingling.

New Procedure

According to the papers filed as "new matter" by the law firm of Markowitz and Kagen of York and Atty. Donald G. Oyler of Gettysburg, Mrs. Bailey, as administratrix of the estate of John Spangler, should be released as defendant in the two cases because the Nationwide Mutual

Fireworks, Bonfires, Musket Fire Will Usher In New Year

In New Orleans or New Delhi, Berlin or Buffalo, Santiago or Shanghai, tonight is the night to forget old troubles and look with hope to a new year.

Midnight will be greeted in many ways by many people as it moves around the globe ushering in another year. Undaunted by last year's broken resolutions, few will overlook an opportunity to turn away awhile from today's black headlines and hope 1959 will bring brighter ones.

There'll be fireworks atop Pike's Peak, a bonfire in Bangor, Maine, musket fire in Cherryville, N.C., and somewhere in the land there may be a chorus or two of "Auld Lang Syne" and perhaps even "Show Me the Way to Go Home."

M'CARTNEY TO BE NEW STATE POLICE CHIEF

McCartney is well known in Gettysburg, having served as a member of the Pennsylvania State Police detail here more than 20 years ago. He was a member of the criminal investigation unit in Gettysburg about 1936 to 1938 as nearly as the dates could be fixed today. He takes over his new duties January 20 as head of the 1900-man police organization.

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. elect Lawrence Tuesday rounded out his Cabinet lineup with the selection of a former state police sergeant as the next state police commissioner.

Frank G. McCartney, 50, Lansford, now a $8,994-a-year special investigator for the State Justice Department was chosen to head up the state police in place of retiring Col. E. J. Henry, Harrisburg.

The incoming governor also named William L. Batt Jr., 42, today, Camp Hill, to continue as secretary of labor and industry and David R. Baldwin, 35, Pittsburgh, as the budget secretary.

$20,000 Job

Baldwin, presently a staff member of the western division of the Pennsylvania Economy League, also will hold the title of deputy secretary of administration under Walter W. Giese, Pittsburgh.

McCartney and Batt will receive $20,000 a year in their Cabinet posts. Baldwin's salary is still undetermined.

Lawrence wound up his Cabinet appointments, retaining 12 members of Leader's Cabinet.

Four Going Off

The only incumbents on the way out are Harry Shapiro, Secretary of public welfare; John H. Ferguson, secretary of administration; Lewis M. Stevens, secretary of highways, and Col. Henry, state police commissioner.

Henry plans to retire. Shapiro and Stevens are to resume private law practices in Philadelphia. Ferguson is returning to the faculty of the Pennsylvania State University.

All of the Cabinet appointments are effective Jan. 20 — the date Lawrence, 69, is inaugurated as successor to Gov. George Leader. Leader, who declined the Public Welfare post, is expected to take a job with a Philadelphia Drug chain.

Suprise Choice

McCartney's appointment came as a surprise since he retired from the state police in 1950, after 19 years of service, to become a coal and iron company police chief in Lansford.

In 1956, McCartney became a Justice Department Investigator under the supervision of Victor H. Wright, deputy attorney general, and did much of the spade work leading to the turnpike and cinder conspiracy trials.

Batt's Record

Batt first became secretary of Labor and industry in March 1957 after Governor Leader dismissed John Torquato, Johnstown, from the post. Before coming here, he was executive secretary of the Toledo, O., Industrial Development Council. He once ran for Congress from Delaware County.

Baldwin already has been serving Lawrence as his fiscal representative with the outgoing administration in preparation of the state budget.

He has been with the Pennsylvania Economy League since 1950 and had served as chief Fayette County assessor from 1962 through 1966.

HEAVY SNOW HITS MIDWEST, SOUTH WEST

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A large part of the Midwest and Southwest will greet the new year under a cover of snow, four to ten inches deep.

After covering New Mexico earlier this week, a moisture-laden storm moved east and north Tuesday. It cut deep into Texas, then dropped four to eight inches of snow on parts of Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri.

Its slow movement was expected to continue across southeast Kansas into northeast Missouri. Along the south and eastern edges of the snow—roughly from St. Louis southwest to north central Arkansas and northeast Texas—there was sleet and freezing rain.

Thirteen deaths, most from traffic accidents, have been attributed to the storm.

Roads were hazardous throughout the storm area.

The wet weather in the mid-continent was expected to extend over wide areas during the day, from eastern sections of Texas and Oklahoma northeastward through Tennessee and Kentucky and across the Ohio Valley into the southern Great Lakes.

A band of freezing rain will divide the occasional rain to the south from the snow in the north, extending from northern Texas northeastward through central Arkansas, Kentucky and southern sections of the Ohio Valley. Heavy snow was forecast to the north from eastern Oklahoma through parts of Missouri, Kansas and Iowa, with light falls in the southern Great Lakes region and northern parts of the Ohio Valley.

ASKS RELEASE

Insurance Co., the insurance company of the late Mr. Spangler, has made settlement with both Robert W. Yingling and his wife and with Mrs. Bailey as administratrix of the John Spangler estate and as guardian of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Spangler. The three Spangler children were injured in the accident when a car owned by Yingling and allegedly operated by Eller and a car owned and operated by Mr. Spangler, in which his wife and children were passengers, collided.

According to "releases" signed by Mr. and Mrs. Yingling and by Mrs. Bailey the insurance company paid according to a formula.

The formula called for payment of $4,000 for an adult's death and up to $2,000 for injuries to adults or minors. The formula also called for payment of $2,000 in the case of deaths of persons under 18. Exactly how much was paid in each case was not indicated.

Whether the releases will actually release Mrs. Bailey as administratrix for John Spangler from the two cases was unknown. Attorneys said the type of insurance policy is new. The releases and settlements also mention pro rata shares in the event higher awards are given by the court against other defendants.

FAMILY LIVES UNDER STANDS AT ROSE BOWL

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The Albert Andersons ordinarily lead a quiet home life. But not on New Year's Day.

Then 100,000 people watch a football game in the couple's "attic." The Andersons live in a small cottage under the west grandstand of the Rose Bowl, where Iowa and California will battle Thursday in the annual New Year's Day game.

Has Seen Every Game

Anderson, a former nurseryman, is foreman of the caretaking staff. The couple moved into the three-room converted dressing room during a housing shortage after World War II.

"I wanted the Rose Bowl job, but we couldn't find a place to live anywhere in town," said Anderson.

The couple was about to move away when the city decided to rent them the apartment nestled between Tunnels 22 and 23.

She'll Watch On TV

Anderson, 67, has seen every Rose Bowl game since 1932 except for 1942 when wartime restrictions moved the annual football classic to Durham, N.C.

Mrs. Anderson stopped going upstairs to watch the game five years ago. She'll see Thursday's tussle on television from the comfort of an armchair.

SAILS YAWL 13,000 MILES

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — "Never again," says handsome 34-year-old Peter Tangvald after a harrowing one-man sailing voyage halfway around the world. "It is too much for one man."

He should know. He sailed his 45-foot wooden yawl Windflower from West Mersey, England, to Long Beach, on the Southern California coast.

The 13,000-mile voyage took more than 14 months and nearly cost the Los Angeles design engineer his life.

He battled mountainous seas for four days in a hurricane, sailed 31 days without spotting another sign of human life, spent 48 unbroken hours at the tiller during a heavy fog without sleep, food or water, and broke two fingers which he banded himself.

The bearded mariner was following in the footsteps of his ancestors. He is of Norwegian descent and started sailing when he was 14.

LONDON (AP) — James Sims, 27, on the run from Pontonville Prison since Dec. 22, sent back his uniform with this note to the jail governor: "I don't think I'll be needing these in the new year."

State DPI Cameraman Makes Film Of Blacksmith John Epley In Action Here

Adams County's touch with the past will be featured by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction in an attempt to promote something new with a motion picture film on Area Technical Schools.

Lyle Weissenfluh, chief of audiovisual education for the state Department of Public Instruction, and Chief Cameraman James Thomas today took motion pictures of the county's senior blacksmith, John Epley, Gettysburg R. 1, working away in his smithy and William Barbour, Gardner R. 2, along the Quaker Valley Rd., working his horses with a horse drawn earth scoop as part of the "old" side of the picture.

That film is to contrast the

"old" with the "new" to argue that a "new approach should be given education by establishment of area technical or trade schools, serving areas comprising one or more counties."

Lighter Helping

The blacksmith's shop will be contrasted with scenes of modern garages and machine shops. The horsedrawn scoop will be contrasted with modern earth moving methods.

Adams County was chosen as one of the few places where an authentic view of past scenes could be recorded. Mr. Epley's shop, unchanged from the blacksmith shops of 100 years ago, is becoming known over the nation from tourists to the battlefield who find the shop fascinating — and secure wrought iron work relatively unavailable elsewhere.

Mr. Barbour is one of the few farmers still using horses in his farm work.

Richard C. Lighter, county supervisor of agricultural education, is accompanying the state department crew and made the local arrangements. The script is being written by William Cooper, chief of industrial education for the state department. Weissenfluh said today the state is promoting technical schools because "most students do not go on to college, and need the best training possible for the trades they will follow."

Devote Page 1 To Highway Safety

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette used its entire front page today to alert motorists to the dangers of careless driving over the New Year's weekend.

The newspaper carried a montage of badly wrecked autos that covered the front page. In the center of the page was a nine-paragraph editorial entitled "Be A Wreckless Driver!"

The editorial said "The pictures surrounding this editorial are published, frankly, for their shock value. They are a grim reminder of what can happen to any of us."

"It will not be tragic if motorists will be cautious, if they will exercise an extra measure of courtesy and safety."

Fred Doelling set a record for a Pennsylvania sophomore in 1957 when the halfback gained 511 yards from scrimmage.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Bank Deposit Insurance In Effect Jan. 2: On Tuesday the new federal banking act, safeguarding against loss all deposits up to $2,500, will go into effect and it is believed that all Adams county banks will be included in the membership of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Most banks in the county have received notice of their admission to membership in the federal corporation and before Tuesday all are expected to have their charters.

The banking act of 1933 in which the insurance law was incorporated was approved on June 16 as the banks of the country were working their way out of the worst phases of deflation. The task of getting the machinery into effective action by January 1 was a mammoth one, and was regarded by not a few as virtually impossible of accomplishment. Nevertheless the hurdles have been taken, and before the close of the year all but a negligible number of the about 14,000 banks in the U. S. will have been strengthened, examined and found eligible for membership.

County Couple Wed Thursday: Miss Ruth C. Kint, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kint, of Mt. Hope, and Charles F. Clapsdill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clapsdill, Buchanan Valley, were married at St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church, Buchanan Valley, Thursday by the Rev. Father W. W. Whalen.

Shields Takes Oath of Office: William I. Shields, of Gettysburg, treasurer-elect of Adams county, took the oath of office at the office of S. L. Allison, prothonotary, Saturday morning and is now ready to take over the duties of his office next Tuesday morning.

As he took the oath of office, Mr. Shields announced that his chief deputy will be Miss Mildred G. Shields, his second oldest daughter.

Former County Girl Wed Xmas: Miss Martha Rosie Erb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Erb, York, formerly of Gardners, and Harold Staub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staub, Hampton, were united in marriage on Christmas morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Norman Ort, pastor of the Full Gospel Lighthouse, West York.

Elected Delegate: Prof. Ira Y. Baker, head of the mathematics department of Gettysburg high school, was signally honored at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association, which closed a week's session at Philadelphia Friday by being elected a delegate to the convention to be held in Washington D. C., June 30 to July 6, 1959.

Liquor Store Supply Here: Opens On Jan. 3: Gettysburg's first consignment of legal whiskies, gins, wines and fancy liquors, to be sold at Adams county's state liquor store in the First National Bank building, center square, arrived Saturday morning.

But apparently the supply will not be available for New Year's celebrations. In fact, the liquors will not go on sale before next Wednesday because of improvements to the storehouse will be not be completed until then.

The truck load of liquors, 84 cases, was brought here from the state warehouse at Harrisburg and was unloaded at J. B. Wine-man's store, center square, where it will be kept until transferred to the new liquor store.

While the consignment is stored at Wineman's store, the local store's three clerks, Jacob Britcher, Gettysburg; P. Emory Weaver, Littlestown, and Russell E. Darone, of East Berlin, will guard the liquors 24 hours a day in three eight-hour shifts.

Today's Talk

STIMULATING PEOPLE

People who stimulate us are "the salt of this earth." They help keep us on our toes, as the saying goes. They do more — they give us a lift. They moisten our mind and warm our heart. They get ideas into our blood stream. They invite us to adventure with them in their world of wonder and mystery. They are, as Don Herold once said of a certain writer, like a "football coach to the soul" — a designation that made the author feel proud.

Stimulating people take us out of the world of selfishness and cheap interests into the world of spirit and universal love and beauty. They help translate us so that they may understand us and we them. They are the salvation of those who are helping to build a better world, because they listen and learn, and are outstanding examples of genuine greatness, the kind of greatness that never bores.

I have many friends who are a stimulating force in my life, and my library is filled with books that stir latent thoughts and ideals. People who love nature always stimulate me. They keep close to Mother Earth, who finally takes us into her arms. How I would love to have known W. H. Hudson, Fabre, John Burroughs, and a host of those who remain to stimulate us to greater understanding for the things that put us on higher ground. I never have a meeting with Edwin Way Teale, listening to his story of birds and flowers, without taking a bit of him with me as we part.

I have noted that people with varied interests are invariably stimulating and inspiring. I would like to have known Thoreau and sat in the small cabin that he built, said nothing — just listened — for few nature writers have ever stimulated others as this quiet man did in life, and who stimulates more as we read his books.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Quiet Mind."

Just Folks

THE OLD YEAR

I could paint you black as the blackest night,
Old Year, if I thought in black;

And words of hate I could freely write
If I thought in hate; but I catch a sight

Of roses along your track,
And I catch a glimpse of a level mile

And here and there I can see a smile.
I could make you as mean as a miser's heart,

As sad as a baby's death;
A giant who tore all our plans apart

And laughed at the ache and the pain and smart;
As cold as the north wind's breath;

But my thoughts go back to the summer day
When the roses bloomed and the world was gay.

And I think of you as I would a friend
Were he passing away tonight

And I stood with him at his journey's end,
Off there by the grim dark river's bend,

As his soul was taking flight,
I'd think of the friend he had been to me,

And the faults he had I'd cease to see.
So I write you fair as you pass away,

For my thoughts of you are fair.
You brought me tears, but they didn't stay;

And here and there was a gloomy day,
But the soul of you was rare.

And I think of the good, not the wrong, you wrought;
And your record's white in my book of thought.

FIVE-CHURCH CHARGE SPLIT ON JANUARY 1

Division of the charge into two charges, effective Thursday, was announced Tuesday by the East Berlin United Church of Christ Charge. The present charge consists of five churches, Emmanuel, Hampton, Mt. Olivet, Bermudian; St. John's, New Chester; St. Paul's Union, Red Run, and Zwingle, East Berlin.

As reorganized, Zwingle and St. Paul's Union will comprise the East Berlin charge and the churches in Hampton, New Chester and Bermudian will become the new Hampton United Church of Christ Charge.

Under the old arrangement a minister was named to serve all five churches and was assisted by a student assigned from the Theological Seminary in Lancaster. The Rev. Robert H. Rezash, now pastor of St. Peter's United Church of Christ, Punxsutawney, was the last full-time minister to serve the present East Berlin charge. He resigned June 1 and James W. Jackson III, a senior student at the seminary in Lancaster, was named supply minister. He was aided by other senior seminarians.

Pulpit committees of both new charges are interviewing prospective ministers.

Mr. Jackson, formerly of Avington, and his wife, Nancy, a native of Germantown, Philadelphia, have been serving in the charge since he was named to assist the Rev. Mr. Rezash. His duties in the five-church charge have now ended but he will remain with the new East Berlin charge through January.

Services in the two churches for Sunday have been scheduled for 9 a.m. at Red Run and 10:45 a.m. in East Berlin. Mr. Jackson will deliver his farewell sermon in St. Paul's Church on this date.

The three are members of the pro-Western Kishi's Liberal Democratic party. They are part of a group of dissidents who want a bigger share of top party jobs and Cabinet posts.

The crisis was touched off when Kishi vainly tried to get a bill through Parliament giving police greater powers to crack down on leftist demonstrations.

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda Monday used such terms as "economic storm" and "trade war" to describe the weekend changes in Western Europe's currency regulations.

Pravda's London correspondent said the French devaluation caught the British by surprise.

Britain, he said, planned to put off convertibility of the pound until the spring, hoping for a stronger revival of her economy. "But Paris did not wait for a formal proclamation of a trade war by Britain timed for a period most favorable to the British."

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—A young man was killed and his girl companion was injured Sunday when their convertible failed to round a curve and hit a tree.

Thomas A. Cadden Jr. of Kingstown, was killed and Louise Wegryniewicz, 20, of Wilkes-Barre was injured seriously. The accident happened in nearby Orange.

MAHANOCY CITY, Pa. (AP) — A raging fire destroyed five downtown buildings Monday night. A merchant, Herman Coffee, was missing.

Authorities said they could not begin to estimate the total damage to a dress factory, a cafe, Coffee's clothing store, a dry cleaning establishment, an auto parts store and several apartments.

Warriors Suffer 73-33
Drubbing By Hanover;
Jayvees Also Trowned

A woefully outclassed Gettysburg High School basketball squad submitted to another South Penn League shellacking here Tuesday evening when the Hanover Night Hawks surprised even their most ardent supporters by breezing to an amazingly easy victory 73-33.

It was strictly no contest after the first period. The closest Gettysburg ever got to the Hawks was at 9-7 after 4:51 of the first period and again at 11-9 at the end of the round. From then on it was all Hanover in every department.

Hanover's superb foul tossing boosted its early lead to a comfortable margin. The Hawks dropped through 27 of 36 tries, many being the important 1 on 1 type. Just the reverse was true for the Warriors who again fell down miserably from the free throw lane with but 11 conversions in 28 tries.

Ampacher Leads
Gary Ampacher, Hanover's lone starter from last season, dropped through 19 points to top all scorers while Marlin Dutterer added 15 more. Only one of Hanover's 12 participants failed to break into the scoring column.

Tommy Crist was high man for the locals with eight and Hardy Nichols followed with six.

Gettysburg fans had hopes for a victory during the first period when the Warriors made it a battle. Ampacher tallied the opening points on a goal and the visitors never lost the lead. The Hawks sent their lead to 6-1 midway in the round before Mike Small landed a pivot shot for the Warriors. Jim Heilman netted a foul and Dutterer two before Bob Furney and Crist landed goals for the Forney-men. Ampacher's pair of goals were followed by singles by Small and Furney as the invaders led 11-9 at the end of the period.

Heilman, Ampacher, Dutterer and Ted Kehr paced Hanover to a 26-17 lead at half time. Gettysburg's points of the second quarter coming on two goals by Nichols, one by Sid Weikert and fouls by Small and Crist.

Gettysburg faded completely from contention in the third round as Ampacher and Dutterer combined for 18 points to enable the Hawks to soar to a commanding 53-26 lead.

Reserves from both benches finished out the last quarter.

The preliminary game was but a forerunner of what was to come in the varsity affair as the Warrior jayvees could not cope with a pressing zone and bowed 55-33. After a close opening period Hanover broke the game wide open with 23 points in the second quarter for a 30-13 half time bulge.

On Friday the Warriors journey to Shippensburg for another league twin-bill.

Sees Return To
Substitutions

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Coach Bob Woodruff of Florida predicted today that the American Football Coaches Assn. would vote overwhelmingly next week to return to unlimited substitutions.

"But whether the Rules Committee will accept the idea is another question," said Woodruff, who is here for the Sugar Bowl game.

The Rules Committee, which meets after the coaches convene in Cincinnati Jan. 6-8, has been known to come up with some surprises, such as last year's radical change in the point after touchdown rule.

In Woodruff's opinion, professional football has done a terrific selling job, and built up a wide national TV following.

Wyoming, Louisiana State, Iowa, Oklahoma and Texas Christian are favored to win the major bowl games in college football's final big fling Wednesday and New Year's Day.

Wyoming (7-3) is a 3½ point choice over Hardin-Simmons (6-4) in the Sun Bowl, which has the spotlight to itself today. This 24th annual affair will lure about 15,000 fans at El Paso, Texas. Kickoff time is 4 p.m. (EST).

The big guns start firing on Thursday before about 343,000 "live" fans and millions of television viewers around the country.

82,000 At New Orleans

Louisiana State (10-0), the nation's No. 1 team, the only major college all-winning outfit, and the "Team of the Year" in The Associated Press year-end poll, is a 15 point choice over the Clemson Tigers (8-2) in the Sugar Bowl.

If Coach Frank Howard's Tigers knock off LSU it will go down as the most shocking bowl upset since Columbia stunned Stanford 7-0 in the 1934 Rose Bowl contest.

A crowd of 82,000 will see this one at New Orleans. It will be telecast by NBC (2 p.m. EST).

18-Point Favorites

Iowa's Big Ten champions (7-1) are 18 points favorites over California's Golden Bears (7-3) in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

A crowd of 100,000 is expected to see a wide-open contest with Iowa's speed demons led by All-America quarterback Randy Duncan and Cal paced by quarterback Joe Kapp.

This is the second half of an NBC TV doubleheader. Starting time is 5 p.m. (EST).

Oklahoma's deep Sooners (9-1) are rated 12½ points over the Syracuse Orange (8-1) in the Orange Bowl at Miami. The ninth ranking New Yorkers are a team bent on a mission. An upset of the fifth-ranking Oklahomans would help ease the memory of the 61-6 shellacking Syracuse absorbed from Alabama in this same Orange Bowl in 1953.

TCU By Eight Points

A crowd of 76,000 will be on hand at Miami for the TV game CBS, 1 p.m. (EST).

Texas Christian (8-2) is the 8 point favorite over the unbeaten, one-ided Air Force Academy Falcons in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. This game will be telecast by CBS following the Orange Bowl clash.

It will start about 3:30 p.m. (EST) with about 75,000 fans on hand.

In a minor bowl Thursday, Prairie View of Texas (8-0-1) meets Langston of Oklahoma (4-3) in the Prairie View Bowl at Houston, before about 10,000 fans. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. (EST).

NEW OXFORD 5

New Oxford High tuned up for its opening Adams-Franklin League game at Bermuda Friday by defeating Dover 56-47 Tuesday evening at New Oxford. It was the second win against three losses for the Colonials. Dover's loss was its second straight after three triumphs.

After battling to a 13-13 tie in the first period, New Oxford forged slowly to the lead and at half time was on top 20-26. The Adams Counties outscored their opponents by slim margins in each of the remaining periods.

Phil Bankert paced the winners with 17 points while Bill Weikert and Steve Naylor each added 10. Dale Bienenour rimmed 15 for Dover.

The New Oxford jayvees won the preliminary by a convincing 62-26 score.

All-Star Hockey

Tilt At Hershey

HERSHEY—Two members of the Hershey Bears—Willie Marshall and Dunc Fisher—will be making their fifth appearance in an American Hockey League All-Star classic when the Bears clash with the All-Stars at the Sports Arena on Thursday evening, January 15.

Fred Glover and Cal Stearns, of the Cleveland Barons, are the only other players who have played in all four previous contests and both, based on early balloting by Hershey fans, will probably be members of the 1959 All-Stars.

2 MILESTONES
REACHED IN NBA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A couple of milestones have been reached by Paul Arizin and Red Auerbach in the National Basketball Assn.

Arizin, the Philadelphia Warriors' sharpshooter, passed the 10,000 point mark in the NBA, and Boston Coach Red Auerbach was presented with his 500th NBA victory by Bob Cousy.

The Philadelphia star, a 30-year-old ex-Marine, joined a select group of 4 in the 10,000 plus club when he clicked for 25 points in leading the Warriors to a disputed 95-93 victory over Minneapolis in the first game of a doubleheader at St. Louis Monday night.

Paced By Pettit

St. Louis, paced as usual by towering Bob Pettit, whipped Cincinnati in the second contest, 124-112. That moved the Hawks 5½ games in front of Detroit in the Western Division. Boston pulled 4½ games ahead of New York in the East with its 107-105 triumph over Syracuse on Cousy's 5 points in the last 90 seconds.

Arizin was just five points short of five figures when he went against Minneapolis. He pumped in 25. That put him into the elite set with George Mikan, the retired Minneapolis great, Dolph Schayes of Syracuse, Ed Macauley, now coach of the St. Louis Hawks, and Cousy.

PIAA Limits Mat,
Football Seasons

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association Board of Control Tuesday formalized limits on its football and wrestling seasons and reelected its statewide officers.

The board, at its annual reorganization meeting, approved an amendment to the PIAA constitution setting the first Saturday in December as the last day a school can participate in a football game. January 1 is the old deadline although almost no schools have been playing beyond Thanksgiving Day.

The board approved another constitutional amendment specifying that practice for the wrestling season shall not begin before Nov. 1 and the first match shall not be held before Nov. 22. The season is to end with the state tournament in March.

Reelected president of the board was H. D. Leberman of Erie. Howard F. C. Thomas, Great Bend, vice president; W. E. Griffith as treasurer and Mark Funk, executive director, also were reelected.

"Campy's" Coming
Back To Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Campy's coming back to the Dodgers.

Roy Campanella, the great catcher whose bat and unflagging spirit sparked the Dodgers to pennants before they moved from Brooklyn to Los Angeles, will be on hand next spring at Vero Beach, Fla.

Paralyzed in an automobile accident last Jan. 28, Campanella has been making a great battle for recovery. He is still partly paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair.

Dodger Vice President Buzzy Bavasi said Tuesday Campanella would coach pitching and catching candidates during spring training in Florida, then become assistant supervisor of scouting in the East.

Pitt Wins Third
Wrestling Title

WILKES-BARRE (AP)—The University of Pittsburgh Tuesday night won its third straight team title in the 27th annual Wilkes College open wrestling tournament.

Pitt picked up four first places, one second and one third for a total of 67 points. Second place Michigan trailed with 41. Lock Haven (Pa.) State Teachers College was third with 36.

The only Pitt grappler who lost was this year's 123-pound national champion, Paul Powell. He was unable to continue his bout with Andrew Fitch of Yale because of a nosebleed.

Fitch, who won this by default, claimed other honors on his own merits. He shared the 16-point high individual total award with Pitt's Alex Skirpan.

Douglas Blubaugh, New York A. C., was voted outstanding wrestler of the tournament by the officials.

COLTSTO SHARE
LARGE PURSES

BALTIMORE (AP)—The $4,718.77 received by each member of the Baltimore Colts for winning the National Football League title is only the beginning.

Two gifts totaling $50,000 — to be split up among players and coaches — were reported Tuesday. A substantial "merit award" also is likely from Colt owner Carroll Rosenbloom, who has doled out postseason gifts as high as $1,000 in the past to also-ran teams.

Another windfall is due next fall when the Colts play the College All-Stars in Chicago. Finally, a half dozen or so Baltimore players will collect again Jan. 11 when they participate in the All-Pro game at Los Angeles.

The money received from Sunday's title game against the New York Giants was divided into 42½ shares by the Colts. On the same basis, the $50,000 would amount to almost $1,200 a full share.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The 54-year-old rushing average of Florida State's Bobby Renn gives the South team for Saturday's Senior Bowl a slight edge in that department.

Coach Paul Brown's Southerners averaged four yards rushing during the past season. The North team of Joe Kuharich averaged 3.9 yards.

Renn's leading average is followed by a 5.6 figure posted by Georgia's fullback, Theron Sapp. The North's leading ground-gainer, Ted Coia of George Washington, also has a 5.6 average.

BOSTON (AP)—Gene Conley, the Milwaukee Braves' 6-8 right-hander, wants to pitch next season — either in Milwaukee or elsewhere.

Conley, who spent the last two months of last season on the bench and wound up with an 0-6 record, made his wishes known in a visit with Braves' General Manager John Quinn a week ago.

The 28-year-old hurler refused to confirm or deny he had asked to be traded. But Quinn said Gene made the request.

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—If State Sen. Joseph W. Cowgill has his way, the Philadelphia Phillies will have a powerful reason to move across the Delaware River into South Jersey.

The Camden Democrat said Tuesday he will introduce a bill in the State Senate to establish an authority for financing a construction of an 8 million dollar baseball stadium.

The 45,000-seat stadium would be on a 70-acre tract in Delaware Township adjacent to Garden State Park and about 10 minutes by car from Philadelphia.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—State College High School kept its 100 per cent record by winning the second annual State College High School Invitation Wrestling Tournament Tuesday night.

Red Says He Will Play Again In '60

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Red Schoendienst is flat on his back in a hospital, convalescing from tuberculosis, but an avalanche of mail shows the fans haven't forgotten him.

The graceful second baseman of the Milwaukee Braves said the thousands of get-well letters have helped him in his determination to return to big league baseball.

"I'll play again," the 35-year-old Schoendienst said in an interview with the Globe-Democrat, "even if I miss next year."

Several nuns at the Mt. St. Rose Hospital occasionally have been pressed into service to help sort his mail. His father-in-law, Tim O'Reilly, one day counted 2,136 letters and cards in a box. Four other such boxes are in Red's room.

OLMEDO'S WIN
RETURNS DAVIS
CUP TO U. S.

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
BRISBANE, Australia (AP)—Alex Olmedo, a modern, racket-swinging miracle from far-off Peru, recaptured the Davis Cup for the United States today and in the process shattered Ashley Cooper's world amateur tennis throne.

In a fantastic exhibition of poise and court craftsmanship, the 22-year-old national collegiate champion from Southern California smashed the Australian, Wimbledon and U.S. champion 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6, to send the coveted cup back to America for the first time since 1964.

The final count of the Challenge Round was 3-2. Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, was beaten by Mal Anderson in the final singles 7-5, 13-11, 11-9. This was an anticlimax, for Olmedo, practically an unknown here, had clinched it when he whipped Cooper.

It was Alex who sent the U.S. hopes soaring when he gave them the first point with a victory over Anderson, then teamed with Ham Richardson to send the Americans ahead again in the doubles with a victory over Anderson and Neale Fraser after the Aussies had tied it when Cooper licked MacKay.

Finally, it was this young son of Peru—the first foreigner ever to represent the United States in Davis Cup competition — who squashed the world's greatest and brought the cup back to the United States.

HAS PLAN FOR USING METEOR TRAILS TO CUT CRAFT SPEEDS

By RENNIE TAYLOR

Associated Press Science Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—A young Seattle physicist reported today he is studying possible ways of using meteor trails and the wakes of satellites as brakes to slow down supersonic aircraft for earth landings.

The idea is to determine whether the trails and wakes contain magnetic fields to regiment the electric particles which they are known to contain.

If magnetic fields are present they may force the electrical particles to move within a long, cylindrical mass which could act as a kind of headwind for slowing test aircraft, said Ira L. Karp of the Boeing Airplane Co.

Karp delivered a paper on the subject before the American Physical Society.

Citing work done by other scientists, Karp said tests already have shown that satellites produce trails of electrified particles by colliding with atoms in the upper atmosphere.

Meteors have long been known to produce these particles. Scientists regularly aim radar waves at meteor trails and record their reflection back to earth.

Some Facts Missing
But investigators so far have not determined whether the trails themselves contain magnetic fields, Karp said. If they have their own magnetic fields it is possible that these fields keep the particles momentarily in line so they can act uniformly against objects of opposite electrical charge.

Thus an aircraft might put a positive electrical charge on its nose and encounter a repelling force when it enters the field of the negatively charged particles in the trail.

Meteor trails thin out too quickly to act with any considerable force. However, an aircraft traveling at 20 times the speed of sound, roughly 12,000 miles an hour, might be able to slip in behind a satellite and slow itself down to a safe landing speed.

NBC PRESENTS DOCUMENTARY ON RED CHINA

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—NBC news certainly is not taking the end of the year lying down.

The revitalization and intensification of coverage by the network's news department, so marked in 1958, is resulting in programs of great interest and variety in the current week.

Next Sunday, for example, NBC-TV will present "The Great Leap Forward," a filmed documentary on life inside Communist China by John Strohm, an American correspondent.

Exit In Doubt
Strohm, a free-lance journalist and agricultural expert, said that during his three weeks in China he never was certain he'd be permitted to leave with his films—and occasionally wondered if he'd get out safely himself.

Two government rules troubled him: no unprocessed film can be exported from China and no American film can be processed in China. Strohm had American film.

Finally, however, he was permitted to take out his film unprocessed.

"Worth 1,000 Words"
"I kept telling the Chinese," he said wryly, "that we have an American adage that one picture is worth 1,000 words. And they kept insisting that it's an old Chinese proverb."

In traveling about 7,500 miles in China he was impressed by two things: the intense, widespread propaganda against America; and the fact that he, personally, was treated courteously except on a couple of occasions.

On Sunday also, NBC-TV will present "Southeast Asia: Target for Communism," a film and live commentary by Cecil Brown, who returned recently from a month-long swing around the rim of Red China.

Beginning Monday NBC newsmen Frank McGee will present Primer on Congress, the first of five daily telecasts designed to acquaint viewers with little-known facets of the legislative branch of government.

The hour-long "Story of Atlas 10B" on NBC-TV last Sunday by way of Chet Huntley Reporting was an excellent examination of both the missile now in orbit and the men behind the missiles.

"Projection '59," also last Sunday, was a stimulating discussion of what may—or may not—happen in the coming year by NBC newsmen gathered in New York from various crucial areas of the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDannell and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Musselman and daughter, Quarryville Sunday. Miss Kathryn Cool and Miss Gertrude Cool, both of Philadelphia, spent the Christmas weekend at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cool.

Mr. and Mrs. William Caskey and daughter, Pamela, of Spring Grove, spent the holiday at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caskey and Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Martin. At the same time a 329-million-dollar aid program for Argentina was announced in Washington. The money is being supplied by the International Monetary Fund, which had urged freeing the peso

As a necessary step to economic recovery, and by three U.S. government agencies and 11 private banks.

Argentina, once a prosperous exporter of wheat and beef, began living beyond her means under dictator Juan Peron in the late 1940s. To appease the workers, he kept raising wages until Argentina was eating up much of the surplus she had previously exported to pay for industrial goods.

The workers still are a powerful political factor which provincial governments have hesitated to cross since Peron was ousted by a military coup in 1955. But mounting foreign debts and the inability of Argentina to modernize herself without further outside help forced action by Frondizi, who was elected last February.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Practically all of Harrisburg's 500 public school teachers will receive $100 a year pay boosts next fall in addition to $200 annual increases mandated by the state.

In approving the raise Monday the Harrisburg School Board said the boost will not change the minimum or maximum salaries of any teachers but merely will enable teachers to reach the top figure in a shorter space of time.

PENTAGON TO BE QUIZZED ON RED MISSILES

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of two Senate committees said today Pentagon officials will be asked about reports that the Soviet Union will have 300 intercontinental ballistic missiles within 18 months.

A report to that effect, without any verification, was made public at a weekend meeting of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science. It said half the 300 ICBMs would work, with a range and accuracy that could destroy the U.S. Strategic Air Command's retaliatory power.

There was no comment from military officials.

Second Hand Report
Roger Hillsman, deputy research director of the Library of Congress' Legislative Reference Service, said he got the report second-hand from a meeting of a minority group of the Council of Foreign Relations in New York early this month.

No tanks used by the American Army in World War I were of American make. They all were made in Britain or France.

ARGENTINA TO GO HUNGRY FOR PROSPERITY

By ROMAN JIMENEZ

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina today faced two years of austerity in an effort to recover prosperity burned up by living beyond her income.

President Arturo Frondizi outlined the hardship program in a nationwide broadcast Monday night. He said it would mean higher prices, less meat and consumer goods, fewer government jobs and more free enterprise.

Frondizi in effect devalued the peso by freeing it from exchange controls to find its own level. It had been fixed at 18 to the dollar but traded unofficially at 66. The change will increase prices of imported goods and eventually of domestic goods.

Get Huge U.S. Fund

SCORNS HAT; WANTS DOVES ELIMINATED

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mayor George Christopher's predecessor in office, Elmer Robinson, warred upon pigeons and gradually became ex-Mayor Robinson.

Mayor Christopher, mindful of the wrath Robinson aroused among bird lovers, has laid low on the pigeon question.

But Monday it sought him out in the person of Councilwoman Mrs. Kathy Zahn, from Albany, across the bay.

She came bearing the scars on her soul suffered by the unwary in all exposed places in this city of gulls and pigeons — Union Square, Civic Center Plaza, Fisherman's Wharf.

Something should be done, Mrs. Zahn told Christopher. A pigeon had messed up her hat.

"The first this happened I considered it an act of God," she said, "But it's happened five times since."

Give Them To Needy

"Some of these pigeons are nice and plump. Let's catch them all with nets and give them to the needy to eat."

The mayor smiled.

"Don't you have pigeons in Albany?"

"We," she replied, "have a law."

"Any seagulls?"

"I've never seen one."

Would Mrs. Zahn be interested in a new hat?

"I'll settle for a cup of coffee and a progress report in two weeks," she purred.

"I'll put my department heads right to work on this," the mayor promised. "But I wish you'd let me buy you a new hat."

"I have 19 hats. I'm noted for my hats," she said, as she marched, head up, from City Hall into the plaza beneath the circling pigeons.

BIG BUSINESS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Shoplifting has become a 16 million dollar a year business in Pennsylvania, authorities here say, and state laws should be strengthened to deal effectively with the crime.

Police Commissioner Thomas J. Gibbons said Monday that he will ask the legislature to make the offense punishable by a jail sentence under the present state law, magistrates usually fine offenders, he said.

NEW YEAR'S EVE WHOOPEE WILL COST "PLENTY"

NEW YORK (AP) — New Year's Eve at most of the nation's leading hotels and night spots will cost you about the same as last year — which, as you may recall, was plenty.

Celebrants who want dinner and entertainment will pay up to $37.50 a person — and extra for the drinks.

A survey of major cities turned up no sign that the night spots are upping prices noticeably this year, though the trend for flat prices on New Year's Eve has long been upward.

Top Tab Spots

Top tabs will be paid at the Empire Room of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York and Los Angeles' Coconut Grove.

At both places dinner, dancing, funny hats, horns and entertainment will cost about $37.50, including tax.

At the Waldorf's Empire Room that price will include listening to singer Eartha Kitt, Emil Coleman's orchestra and Gypsy violinist Bela Bebai.

Most well-heeled celebrants who want to do the evening up right in major cities will be paying about $25 a person, plus up to $1.25 a drink extra.

Location Matters

That is the price in top spots in Miami Beach and Chicago, the plushier clubs on Los Angeles' Sunset Strip, and New York's ultra-swank Twenty-one and El Morocco.

Two big, brassy spots in New York, with elaborate floor shows and filet mignon dinners, are billing all-night customers according to where they sit. At both the Copacabana and the Latin Quarter, it will be $15, $20 or $25 per person, depending upon location.

There will be a few bargains. Best Buy in Miami

At a Washington night club it will cost only $10 plus tax per person for dinner, one cocktail, soups and noisemakers, the Ink Spots, a chorus line, singers and dancers — and breakfast.

The Waldorf will open its grand ballroom for a public New Year's Eve party for the first time in history. In addition to supper, hats, noisemakers and the music of Les and Larry Elgart, all the ladies will get gifts of French perfume — also for only $10 a head.

Probably the best buy will be the Miami Beach Kennel Club, which opens Wednesday night offering a full-course dinner, music and favors for only $5 a person.

Probe Treatment Of Yanks In Cuba

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Delta Air Lines has asked the State Department to investigate the manhandling and detention of two Americans who were dragged off a Delta plane in Havana Monday.

Delta's New Orleans office identified the two passengers, held by Cuban police, as Louis F. Brantley and James W. Reid.

Their home towns were not available, but Delta said Reid's passport gave his birthplace as Dunmore, Pa.

The airline said it had been told that Brantley and Reid made complimentary remarks about the political situation in Cuba as they waited in the lobby of the Havana Airport. The plane had just come in from Montego Bay, Jamaica, and was bound for New Orleans.

PLCB HEAD ASKS CHANGES IN STATE LAW

HARRISBURG (AP) — Patrick E. Kerwin, chairman of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, Monday called for legislation to control concentration of retail liquor licenses.

The problems merits careful study by the 1959 General Assembly, Kerwin said, due to the rapid population growth and the shift towards the suburbs.

"Legislation is needed to halt the concentration of retail license, not only in certain sections of our cities, but in rapidly growing suburbs and along new highways being built or projected for the future," he said.

Cites Decision

However, he said the liquor control board "has been compelled to flout public opinion and to grant license transfers it ordinarily would reject since a state Supreme Court ruling on Nov. 12, 1956."

In 1959, the General Assembly recognized the need for limiting the number of retail licenses, Kerwin said.

The liquor board chairman said the high court decided that the board "has no legal right to refuse the transfer of a retail license even in the face of vigorous protests of churches, business and civic groups so long as the license in question is not moved to a point within 300 feet of a church, hospital, school or playground."

DEADLINE ON BONUS IS HERE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The bell tolling the arrival of the new year this evening also will toll an end to the 440-million-dollar bonus for Pennsylvania veterans of World War II.

The Bureau of World War II compensation estimated today there are still about 50,000 eligibles who have not filed for the payment.

Since the first check was handed out to Robert A. Bowman Jr., a Purple Heart veteran from York, at a ceremony here on Jan. 23, 1950, presided over by Gov. James H. Duff, the state has paid out $426,492,512.00 to 1,317,638 veterans or beneficiaries of veterans.

All Pennsylvania residents who served honorably in the Armed Forces for 90 days between Sept. 2, 1945, and Dec. 7, 1941, are eligible for a minimum $20 bonus. In addition they can receive $10 a month for each month's service in the U.S. or $15 a month for each month's service overseas, up to a maximum of $500.

Originally, the deadline for applying was to be July 1, 1960, but a generous legislature granted a series of extensions up to Wednesday midnight. Applications postmarked not later than that hour will be honored.

LONDON (AP)—The government raised rents Tuesday for the Beefeaters at the Tower of London despite their threat to strike.

The Beefeaters are colorfully uniformed yeoman wardens in the ancient, central London castle by the Thames Rivers. The men are retired warrant officers from the military services who live with their families within the tower's gray walls.

They have been paying only a nominal rent of 5 shillings (70 cents) a week and in return performed such duties as night security work, standing guard on winter Sundays when the tower is closed and appearing in church parades.

Tower authorities announced two weeks ago they would increase the rent to a pound ($2.80). The Beefeaters said they'd stop the extra work if that happened. Today the minister of works made the increase official.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The little guy, any little guy going home this New Year's Eve, looked back on 1958 and could hardly see it. It wasn't much of a year, a kind of ho-hum year, a real second-rater, as years ago.

Nothing was settled. It was a kind of in-between year, full of things left over to be settled later. It was like a boy carrying a bunch of packages from 1957 to 1959.

He had mixed feelings about it, and about himself too: both glad and uneasy.

A Little Uneasy

When the recession hit, it was like being missed by lightning. Millions of guys lost their jobs but he kept his. He knew a recession is like lightning. It would hit again some time. Next time it might not miss him.

There was something to be uneasy about. Not too uneasy, but a little unsure, like all the times on the way to work when he wondered if he had put out that last cigarette before he left the house.

There was one thing didn't make him happy: it was the feeling that in the whole year he should have done more with his life. Maybe he could have done better if he were smarter, or thought harder. Ballyoney.

Felt Smaller

He had this same feeling of time being wasted at the end of every year. No reason to. The way he was: he had no illusions; he had realized long ago he'd never see the world afire. So why feel disappointed?

He knew he felt smaller in 1958 than in any year of his life, and the world looked bigger. He felt less and less a part of things, more and more left out. It was easy to tell when that started with him.

It was in the fall of 1957 when the Russians sent their first Sputniks up. It was like being thrown bodily into a new world and he was unprepared for it. He had spent his whole life earthbound, looking down, not up.

A Little Phony

The Sputniks were like a can-opener: they lifted the lid on a whole new world over his head and men were talking of sailing out into it, to the moon and even to the planets beyond.

All of a sudden scientists were the princes of the new order, the guides to the future, the magicians of time and space. He wished his kids would fit into the new world coming, better than he knew he'd ever be able to.

He told himself: "You sound a little phony, moaning about all you don't know about space and rockets and things like that. How much do you know about what's going

WORLD TRADE CHANGES SEEN WITH NEW YEAR

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Americans doing business in Western Europe will find some of their money transactions a bit less complicated today. But they will find the French manufacturer a keener competitor in world trade.

And Thursday they will find that in France and five other Western European nations the tariff walls will be higher for Americans and other outsiders than for the six in the Common Market.

These are the results of France's newest devaluation of its franc and the partial lowering by nine other nations of curbs on changing their money into dollars.

But the most troublesome trade barrier of all is still there. That is the import quotas which many lands impose on the goods of Americans and other outsiders.

It was a good question. He knew he wouldn't get high marks on that one either. There were too many things happening in too many ways and in too many places for him to know more than just little pieces.

Politics, for instance. He knew American politics pretty well. He could spot a big mouth in an empty head as fast as the next guy. What about economics? He was glad there was no one around to pin him down on economics. But then even the economists themselves never seemed to agree. So he felt he could sound off on prices and wages without sounding too bad.

But he really bogged down when he began thinking of what went on between the United States, and the Soviet Union, and Red China, and other countries. Then he didn't know what to think.

Just Preparation

Was anybody — say the United States or the Soviet Union — getting ahead of anybody? He knew all the talking, all the dickering, was just preparation for something. He didn't know. Maybe he'd never know in his lifetime.

He was living better than he had ever lived. He liked to think it would always be like that: better every year. Not so much for himself. For his kids. He didn't know. He couldn't be sure.

All he knew, when he reached his house this New Year's Eve and went inside, it wasn't so much like closing a door on a year as it was like closing a door on just another day.

Market is also one of the factors leading Britain, Denmark, Sweden, Norway and all the Common Market nations except France to announce limited currency convertibility.

This permits the exchange of foreign holdings of their currencies into dollars or any other form of cash, so that American businessmen can get dollars, at going exchange rates, for their goods—if permitted to sell them in the nine countries.

Thursday the Common Market nations take their first step by lowering the tariffs 10 per cent on goods shipped by each other within the market's limits, but maintaining the old barriers against goods of all other nations.

Over the years the tariffs will be lowered further on Common Market goods and a common tariff wall set up by all six against outsiders.

SCIENTISTS, ENGINEERS REPORT TO IKE

President Eisenhower has received the final report from his committee on scientists and engineers, which was established in April, 1956 to stimulate non-federal activity to increase the national supply of scientific and technical manpower.

The report, forwarded to the President by Dr. Howard L. Bevis, chairman, outlined the major accomplishments of the committee. These include a series of "utilization clinics," co-sponsored by the committee with industry and other groups to improve the effective use of existing scientists and engineers; organization of state and local groups representing industry, labor, education and others to work for the long-range improvement of elementary and secondary education in science and mathematics; development of statistical data, in collaboration with the National Science Foundation, on the supply of scientists and engineers; dissemination of carefully prepared guidance and counseling materials for high school students about science and engineering careers, and dramatization for the public of the need for highly qualified scientists, engineers, and supporting technicians.

Will Have Deep Influence
Dr. Bevis, in his letter accompanying the committee's report, said "the beginning of what might be called 'the scientific revolution' will have a deep influence on our whole way of life. Our evergrowing need for more highly trained and more highly skilled manpower — to support a larger population, a rising standard of living, and an increasingly complex technological economy — (1) poses new and difficult problems for our educational system and (2) calls for changes in the accepted patterns of labor force deployment."

The termination of the committee, he said, does not mean that the nation is now assured of

Destroy Polaris Off Its Course

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A sleek Polaris test rocket roared off to a beautiful start Tuesday but was blown up minutes later when it drifted off course. It was the third time in a row that a Polaris was destroyed after launching.

The temperamental two-stage missile blasted straight up at 9:58 a.m. However, 15 minutes after the spectacular blastoff the Navy announced that the range safety officer destroyed the missile when it deviated from its planned trajectory.

The mission was to shoot the 25-foot test rocket on an 800-mile flight across the Atlantic.

Hershey Bears To Meet Springfield
HERSHEY—Coach Frank Mathers of the Hershey Bears is hoping that his skaters will launch 1959 by snapping their three-game losing streak with a win over the Springfield Indians at the Sports Arena on Thursday night. Face-off will be at 8 p.m.

Mathers is confident that his "big" line of Willie Marshall, Dunc Fisher and Obie O'Brien, which has been held scoreless since being reunited, is about ready to pick up where it left off last season.

An adequate supply of highly-trained manpower in the years ahead. "In short," he said, "it must be emphasized that our scientific, technological and other correlative manpower problems have been intensified rather than diminished since the committee was organized in 1956. "The National Defense Education Act and the expanding programs of the Office of Education and the National Science Foundation are welcome evidence of the government's practical concern and its readiness to act. The watchword now is 'follow through.' " The committee recommended that a coordinating agency in the executive office of the President be given responsibility for the nation's efforts in the development and utilization of highly trained manpower.

Mt. Hope CHOIR SINGS CANTATA AT EUB CHURCH

Recitations by the children and a cantata, "Night of Nights," by Dale Asher Jacobus, presented by the church choir, comprised the Christmas Eve program in the Mt. Hope EUB Church. The program was opened with the carol, "Joy To The World," sung by the congregation. Scripture reading by Dwight Sites and prayer by the Rev. Alfred Gotwalt.

Recitations and exercises were presented as follows: "Tell of Christ's Birth," Lois McDannel; "In Bethlehem," Lois Ann Mickle; "Once Again," Mike Bollinger; "Just One Savior," James Hare; "What Need Was There?" Anna Mae Sites; "A Sweet Reminder," Mike Kint; "Candle Messages," Susie Mickle; Kay Bollinger and Cindy McDannel; and "Christmas Prayer," Valerie Slusser.

The children sang "Away In A Manger" and "Christmas Giving" and Kenneth Gotwalt played a trumpet solo, "Silent Night." Other congregational carols were "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing," "O Come All Ye Faithful" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

The cantata story was narrated by Ray Shindeldecker and was illustrated by several tableaux. The evening offering is being presented to the Quincy Orphanage and Home. Gifts were given the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Cotwalt; Richard Sites, Sunday School superintendent; Ray Shindeldecker, adult class teacher, and Miss LeAnna Lightner, church pianist. Candy and oranges were given to the children.

Aid To Meet
The Ladies Aid of the Mt. Hope EUB Church will meet Thursday, January 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the church hall instead of the regular day which falls on New Year's Day.

MOSCOWITES FIND VODKA IS RATIONED

By HAROLD K. MILKS
MOSCOW (AP) — Moscowites jamming the night spots on New Year's Eve probably will have to depend on champagne or other wines, not traditional and more potent vodka, to make them merry.

The Soviet capital's downtown hotel dining rooms, restaurants and cafes are booked solid for the gayest night of the Russian year. Many are expected to restrict vodka drinkers to 100 grams — about one shot — for the evening, in accordance with Premier Nikita Khrushchev's new edict in the stepped-up campaign to discourage drunkenness.

Plenty Of Other Drinks
But the proprietors assured inquirers that wines, champagne and lighter intoxicants would be available in quantities limited only by the drinker's pocketbook. Khrushchev in a speech Oct. 17 said a new law as being written under which a customer could get only one shot of strong drink in a restaurant. "Those who want five glasses will have to go to five restaurants," said the Premier. "They'll sober up while making the rounds."

In Effect Now
Most officials believed the new directive would not become fully effective until New Year's Day. But many restaurants began restricting their customers last Saturday, and temperatures ranging to 30 below zero discouraged would-be drunks from making the rounds. On New Year's Eve they probably can't get into restaurants where they don't have reservations.

For the celebration most restaurants are offering a special dinner with wine, champagne, music, dancing and 100 grams of vodka per customer. The cost is 150 rubles, $3.50 at the official rate. Anything else will be extra.

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctica (AP)—A 10-man ground party left Monday to set up a U.S. auxiliary base 160 miles from Little America on the trail to Byrd Station. The new base, to be used for summer support activity, will be named Camp Rockford, after the Illinois town where Rear Adm. George Dufek makes his home. Dufek is the commander of the U. S. antarctic naval support force. The party is led by Chief Petty Officer Lawrence Allemand, a Seabee from Lockport, La.

BONN, Germany (AP) — The West German National Bank is making 60 million dollars available to France to help her put through her currency reform.

A government spokesman Monday said several other countries also are making money available to the French. But he declined to name the countries or to say how much was involved.

A West German spokesman said the 60 million is a short-term credit but would not say when it had to be repaid.

M'Bride Sworn In On Supreme Court

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Thomas D. McBride, a Philadelphia Democrat and former state attorney general, was sworn in Monday as a justice of Pennsylvania's Supreme Court.

The oath was administered by Chief Justice Charles Alvin Jones on the bench with him were Justices Benjamin Jones and Herbert B. Cohen.

Also present were Gov. George M. Leader, who appointed McBride earlier this month to the vacancy caused by the death of Justice John C. Arnold, U.S. Sen. Joseph Clark (D-Pa.) and Philadelphia's Mayor Richardson Dilworth.

McBride's appointment is until January, 1960. An election to fill the full 21-year term will be held next November.

BLIND MAN'S "SEEING EYE" DOG IS DYING

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sheba dies a little bit every day. And a piece of Ray Myers' heart goes with her.

They're buddies, you know. Close as only a blind man and his dog can be.

For three weeks the gray German shepherd has lived on will power and love. She goes right on working, guiding her master through the city hubbub.

The scores of people who scurry past them at the little sidewalk stand where Myers sells novelties little know she's in agony from the cancer eating her intestines and throat.

Getting New Dog
"She should have been put to sleep three weeks ago," said Morris Kaufman, a cafe owner, and a friend of the blind man. "The vet is trying to keep her alive until Ray gets a new dog."

Sheba's not old. Ray trained her himself when he bought her for a dollar 2½ years ago when she was young.

He won't be training his new dog. Professionals will do that. On Jan. 10 he starts two or three weeks of schooling with the dog which will become his new eyes. This was one of the things arranged by Kaufman.

Barely Touches Food
Kaufman also got a new room for Ray when he was evicted because of Sheba. And patrons of the cafe and employees of a large store nearby chipped in on expenses for the new dog and it's training.

Sheba scarcely touches her food now. Each day she gets more gaunt and finds it harder to get to her feet. She gets pills three times a day, for the pain.

She'll go to her well-earned rest just before the new dog enters her master's life, if she lives that long.

School Safety To Get More Attention
HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation to require two daily inspections of fire doors in all Pennsylvania schools will be asked of the 1959 Legislature by the Public Instruction Department.

Dr. Charles H. Boehm, public instruction secretary, said Monday the law is needed to insure the safety of every child in school. "The proposed legislation will fix the responsibility for fire door inspections with the school building principal, the head teacher or any person designated by the local school board," Boehm said.

"Recent checks of many school buildings have indicated that one of the most frequent violations of fire regulations is the failure to keep fire doors closed at all times."

ATLAS MAY BE IN ORBIT UNTIL FEBRUARY 1

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's Atlas satellite is expected to stay in orbit more than twice as long as the 20 days first predicted.

But the radio voice which relayed President Eisenhower's recorded message of peace and good will to the world is expected to die within the next 10 days.

The Defense Department now says the 8,000-pound Atlas may continue to orbit until about Feb. 1.

The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory at Cambridge, Mass., says most watchers in the United States should be able to see the Atlas during the next few days.

Fine Brightness
Smithsonian Moonwatch teams have estimated the Atlas has a brightness ranging up to the brightest star in the heavens, depending on distance.

This morning's first passage over the United States is at 5:09 a.m., EST, should be visible in Florida only. The second, at 6:47 a.m., EST, cuts across Central America and should be visible in an area from southwest Texas to the Great Lakes and western New York state to western Florida.

Today's final passage over the Pacific at 8:26 a.m., EST, should be visible from the mid-California coast to North Dakota and down to New Mexico.

Woman Suicide Kills Deaf Mute

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A woman leaping to her death from a seventh-floor window fell on top of a pedestrian, also killing him. Killed in the suicide plunge Monday was Mrs. Louise Stark, 41, who was despondent because her husband had received a jail sentence.

She fell on a crowded downtown sidewalk, crumpling Victor Angel, 44, a deaf-mute flower seller, beneath her. He died shortly afterward in a hospital.
